Port to Continue Community Dialogue on Waterfront Development

Third in a series of meetings to provide the public the opportunity to share their input related to downtown waterfront development, and hear about preliminary ideas

WHO: The Cleveland-Cuyahoga Port Authority/Port of Cleveland

(Co-hosted by the City of Cleveland's Planning Commission, the Cleveland Public Library, and The Cleveland-Cuyahoga Port Authority Waterfront Development Strategy Team led by EHRENKRANTZ ECKSTUT & KUHN Architects – world renowned waterfront planners)

WHAT: An open community meeting to continue dialogue about how best to give back the downtown waterfront to the people of Cleveland and Northeast Ohio. This is the third in a series of open community meetings scheduled through September 2009. The community meeting is free and open to the public.

WHERE: St. Ignatius High School
Fr. Sullivan Gymnasium
1911 West 30th Street
Cleveland, Ohio 44113
216- 651-0222
Parking: Southeast Corner parking lot, on corner of Lorain and West 30th

WHEN: Thursday August 13, 2009
5:30 – 8:00 p.m.

WHY: The purpose of the public meeting is to make sure that the Port hears and responds to ongoing feedback from citizens and businesses about the proposed port relocation near East 55th Street, and the creation of a world class downtown waterfront. The Port will also share some preliminary ideas and concepts for the waterfront, and introduce the development strategy team.
