

David J. Wondolowski
Bio

David J. Wondolowski is the Executive Secretary and Business Manager of the Cleveland Building and Construction Trades Council which represents 14,000 Building Trades members in Cuyahoga, Lake, Geauga and Ashtabula counties. David formerly served on Broadview Heights City Council, and is a former member of the Ohio Public Works Commission. Currently, he serves on the Cuyahoga County/City of Cleveland Work Force Investment Board, he is a member of the governing board of the Ohio Consumer's Council, an Executive Board member for the Ohio State Building Trades Council and ACT Ohio, a member of the NOACA's Business Advisory Committee, and he served on the transition team for Cuyahoga County Executive Armond Budish. In 2016 David was elected to serve on the Cuyahoga County Board of Elections. David is also a member of the Greater Cleveland Partnership (GCP) and recently served as a board member of the GCP's Commission on Economic Inclusion.